Finding a Job On Campus

IRFANUL ALAM

CHENG-WEI LIN

INTERNATIONAL CENTRE PEER ADVISERS
Disclaimer

If you have any questions regarding on-campus, F1/J1 employment, consult with an adviser (not a friend!) at the international center.
Work Study vs. Non-work Study Jobs

• International students are not eligible for work-study jobs.

• It is possible that a department or an office will hire an international student if they are unable to find a qualified work-study eligible student.
Why having a job is a good idea?
Things to consider when taking a job?

TREAT ANY JOB SERIOUSLY!
Where can I look for a job?

- Pick “Non-Work Study” when prompted
- Ignore “Non-University Employer” jobs
- Salary Range (Suggestion): Undergraduate $8.15 - $13, Graduate >= $13
Other places to look for jobs

These are hyperlinked to their respective employment pages
How do I apply?

PAY ATTENTION TO APPLICATION DEADLINES!
Grad-only jobs

Graduate Student Instructor
Might require GSI-OET

Graduate Student Research Assistant
What makes me a good candidate?

- Excellent oral English.
- Familiarity with the teaching materials.
- Passion for teaching.
- A Research interest match.
- Skill sets match.
- Funding.
Make sure you do the following

- Ask about all possible positions.
- NETWORK inside and outside of your home department.
- Look out for Emails.
Make sure you do the following (Cont’)

► Subscribe to the listserv of your school/college/department.

► Have your resume ready.

► Consider volunteering.
QUESTIONS?

Please complete the evaluations!