

Home > Tragedy in Sri Lanka

Tragedy in Sri Lanka

The staff of the International Center would like to express our sympathy and concern for U-M international students, scholars, and employees from Sri Lanka after the recent terrorist attacks.

We would also like to remind students that Counseling and Psychological Services \(CAPS\) [1] is available to help you find support during this stressful time. You can call them any time at (734) 764-8312 or visit their office in the Tappan Auxiliary Building Monday -Thursday from 8 am - 7pm and Fridays from 8am-5pm.

Support for U-M employees is available from Faculty and Staff Counseling and Consultation Office \(FASCCO\) [2] or for Michigan Medicine employees, from the Michigan Medicine Office of Counseling and Workplace Resilience [3].

Source URL: <https://internationalcenter.umich.edu/tragedy-sri-lanka>

Links

[1] <https://caps.umich.edu/>

[2] <https://hr.umich.edu/benefits-wellness/health-well-being/mental-health-counseling-consultation-services/faculty-staff-counseling-consultation-office-fascco>

[3] <https://hr.umich.edu/benefits-wellness/health-well-being/mental-health-counseling-consultation-services/michigan-medicine-office-counseling-workplace-resilience>