Description: University Study Abroad Consortium (USAC [2]) is a non-profit, university based organization. It offers 27 different countries with over 50 program sites to choose from when studying abroad. It is known for providing well-rounded, academically sound and credible programs. USAC provides affordable study abroad programs through its modest program fees, scholarships, and other funding opportunities.

Whether you're ready to apply to study abroad today or just curious to learn more about studying abroad — come meet a USAC University Relations Coordinator in person and help get the conversation started!

Register: Lunch will be provided so please register in advance [3].

If you are unable to attend the session, you can stop by the USAC table at the International Opportunities Fair [4] (Ballroom, Michigan League) on Wednesday, October 30, 12pm-3pm.
