Being a Volunteer of Color in Service (03/13)
The various aspects of our identities may impact our individual service as volunteers. In this discussion we will hear from Returned Volunteers about how their racial identities influenced their service and lives in another country. This informal discussion with Returned Peace Corps Volunteers is designed to give you an opportunity to ask questions and hear unique perspectives on an interesting 27 months in Peace Corps.

LGBTQ+ Identities in Service (03/27)
Do you identify as LGBTQ+ and are also considering applying to Peace Corps? We invite you to this Coffee Chat where you can hear from LGBTQ+ identified Returned Volunteers about their experience in service, and feel safe to ask questions about gender and sexual identities abroad. This informal discussion with Returned Peace Corps Volunteers is designed to give you an opportunity to ask questions and hear unique perspectives on an interesting 27 months in Peace Corps.

Preparing to Leave for Service (04/03)
Gearing up to leave for Peace Corps can be pretty daunting. From the medical and legal clearance process, to packing lists, and mentally preparing to leave home it can be a lot to process. Come talk with Returned Volunteers about their experience, what helped, what didn't, and how you can feel confident in leaving for an exciting journey! This informal discussion with Returned Peace Corps Volunteers is designed to give you an opportunity to ask questions and hear unique perspectives on an interesting 27 months in Peace Corps.

If you'll be joining us, please RSVP here [2].
