Check U-M’s 2020-21 Campus Maize & Blueprint for information and updates.

When will insurance coverage begin for new students?

After you complete your mandatory check-in, your health insurance coverage will begin on your I-20 or DS-2019 start state. The Winter 2021 mandatory check-in will be online, and you will receive detailed information soon.

Can new students who arrive on campus before their I-20 or DS-2019 start date start their insurance coverage early?
Yes, if you arrive on campus early, you can start your insurance coverage early as long as the new start date is in the same month as your I-20 or DS-2019 start date. For example, if your I-20 start date is January 19, the earliest that you can start your insurance is January 1. If you would like to do this, email ihi@umich.edu to request an earlier start date.

I am a new student, and will not be able to arrive on campus on time due to visa or travel delays. Can I start my insurance coverage later?

Yes. A form that you can use to report your late arrival and request a later start date will be available in January. This page will be updated with a link to that form once it is available.

I am a returning student and my insurance was cancelled during the Fall Term. When will my insurance begin again?

The COVID-19 Fall health insurance waivers expire on December 31. Your insurance will begin again on January 1, 2021.

I am not going to return to U-M for the Winter Term because I am studying remotely from outside the U.S. Can I cancel my insurance for the Winter Term?

Yes. You can request a Winter Term 2021 COVID-19 waiver.

I am a new student but will study remotely from outside the U.S. during Winter Term 2021. Am I required to have health insurance?

No. Once you have decided when you come to campus, U-M will send you an I-20 or DS-2019 form with a start date appropriate for your first on-campus term. After you come to campus and complete your mandatory check-in, your insurance will begin on the I-20 or DS-2019 start date. For example, if you decide to come to campus for Fall Term 2021, your I-20 or DS-2019 will have an August start date and your insurance will begin on that date.
