Funding Resources for U-M Graduate Internship and Research

There are lots of opportunities for UM graduate student funding for abroad experiences. Below is a list of U-M offices with funding opportunities. Other important resources include:

- Your UM School or College
- Department or degree program
- International office within your school/college
- Professors
- Foreign Language departments

U-M Offices That May Have Funding for U-M Graduate Students

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Office</th>
<th>Description and Examples</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>U-M International Institute</td>
<td>The International Institute has the most comprehensive listing of all U-M funding sources for international educational activities. It includes International Institute Fellowships (for internships, research, theses, dissertations; available for all students, including non-U.S. citizens) and IIE-Fulbright and Fulbright-Hays Fellowships.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Area Studies Centers</td>
<td>US/ED Foreign Language and Area Studies Fellowships (FLAS)</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Listings of specialized grants via web sites and email lists</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Some centers will consider grant applications or offer grants (e.g. Center for Chinese Studies [3], Center for Russian, East European, and Eurasian Studies (CREES) [4], Center for Afro-American and African Studies (CAAS) [5], South Africa Initiative [6], Weiser Center for Europe and Eurasia (WCEE) [7], Center for Southeast Asian Studies [8], Center for South Asian Studies [9], and more – check with the center that corresponds with the area to which you’ll be traveling.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Center for the Education of Women</td>
<td>Grants for women who propose research on women's issues (also available to undergraduates). CEW also offers a fellowship [11] for graduate students pursuing fieldwork or research in South or Southeast Asia.</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Rackham Fellowships Office</td>
<td>Fellowships for students in Rackham graduate degree programs</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>The Ginsberg Center</td>
<td>Offers grants for individuals or groups doing internships or research with a service, social justice or “community-based” focus. See Fellowships as well as Student Resources.</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
William Davidson Institute – Student Projects & Internships [14] Offers several grant and internship programs for graduate students.

Raoul Wallenberg International Summer Travel Fellowship (administered by the International Center) [15] In the spirit of Raoul Wallenberg's experience at Michigan, the Raoul Wallenberg International Summer Travel Fellowship will allow selected students to take part in a community service project or civic participation anywhere in the world. Can be found on MCompass [16]. Search Scholarship Programs: "Wallenberg."

Check out Tips for Funding Graduate International Internships [17] for more information.

Source URL: https://internationalcenter.umich.edu/abroad/swt/work/funding-graduate

Links
[1] https://ii.umich.edu/
[2] https://ii.umich.edu/ii/centers/
[4] https://ii.umich.edu/crees/undergraduates/funding-resources.html
[5] https://ii.umich.edu/asc/funding
[7] https://ii.umich.edu/wcee/students/funding.html
[8] https://ii.umich.edu/cseas
[9] https://ii.umich.edu/csas/
[12] https://rackham.umich.edu/funding/
[15] https://internationalcenter.umich.edu/abroad/raoul-wallenberg
[16] https://mcompass.umich.edu/
[17] https://internationalcenter.umich.edu/sites/default/files/Funding_Tips_for_Graduate_Students.pdf