Teaching English in German-Speaking Countries

- Austrian-American Fulbright Commission [1]
  Teaching Assistantships through the Austrian Government. Teach 12 hours of English per week in a high school in a university town. Assistantship lasts from October-June.
- Fulbright U.S. Student Programs, Institute of International Education [2] (IIE)
  Fulbright English Teaching Assistantships. Programs vary in pay, location and housing. Students must have Bachelor’s degree, German majors preferred. UM Students should apply through the International Institute. Non U-M and graduate students apply directly to IIE.

Source URL: https://internationalcenter.umich.edu/abroad/swt/work/german-teaching

Links
[1] https://www.usta-austria.at/
[3] https://ii.umich.edu/ii/fellowshipsandgrants