

U-M Library Basics in Chinese

Location:

Virtual

Description: This workshop is for international students and scholars who speak Chinese. Gain insight into the resources and services available at the library and learn strategies for efficiently finding information for your research projects.

Join our Chinese Studies Librarian to explore the following questions:

- How can I access library resources remotely or in person?
- What kind of technology help can I get at the library?
- How can I find scholarly books and articles?
- What are some of the research tools the library provides that may help me with my research?

This session is co-sponsored by the International Center and the U-M Library [1].

This session is being offered as part of International Orientation; however, registration is open to continuing students, as well.
