

American Football 101

[1]

Location: Munger Graduate Residences [2], Multipurpose Room (G120)

Description: American football is popular amongst sports fans in the United States. The University of Michigan is home to Michigan Stadium, nicknamed “The Big House.” Many college students like to spend Saturdays watching college football, and attending on-campus sporting events is one way to show school spirit.

During the program, you will learn some basic rules about American football, enjoy food, and watch the first half of the game (U-M vs. Wisconsin [3] game time: 12pm) on the screen with other students.

Register Here [4].

This event is cosponsored by Munger Graduate Residences and the International Center.

Tags:

cultural & social [5]

Source URL: <https://internationalcenter.umich.edu/events/american-football-101-0>

Links

[1] https://internationalcenter.umich.edu/sites/default/files/event-image/American_Football_101_2019.jpg

[2] <https://campusinfo.umich.edu/building-search/building/600/munger-graduate-residences>

[3] <https://mgoblue.com/schedule.aspx?path=football>

[4] <https://sessions.studentlife.umich.edu/p/track/3157>

[5] <https://internationalcenter.umich.edu/event-tags/cultural-social>