Student Enrollment

According to 2015-16 data from the Institute of International Education (IIE) Open Doors 2016 report, U-M ranked fourteenth nationally among all universities (ninth among public research institutions) in terms of “hosting” international students. The Open Doors report includes both enrolled students and those on post-completion Optional Practical Training (full-time work authorization after completion of studies). Therefore, Open Doors 2016 indicates that U-M “hosted” 7,630 international students in Fall Semester, 2015 and not the 6,270 reported as enrolled by the International Center based on Fall Semester 2015 data from the Office of the Registrar. In Fall Semester 2016, U-M enrolled 6,754 international students from 123 countries.

Note: The number of enrolled students reported by the International Center differs slightly from the number reported by the Office of the Registrar in Report #118 because the International Center report does not include students in pending permanent resident status.

Economic Impact

According to IIE’s estimated economic impact formula, U-M’s international student community (students and dependents) contributes an estimated $267.2 million to the local economy. The net contribution to the state economy by international students and their families is approximately $1.1 billion.

Dependent Support

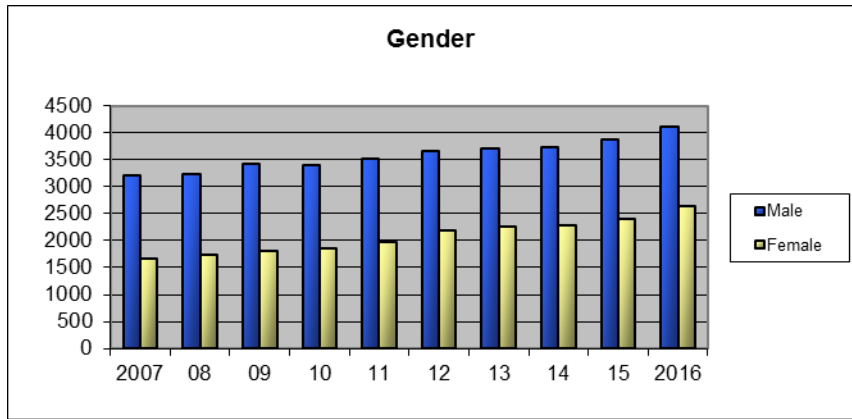

In Fall Term 2016, U-M’s F-1 and J-1 international students and J-1 international scholars and employees were accompanied by 1,093 dependents in F-2 or J-2 immigration status.

The International Center provides advising and programs for these dependents, as well as for dependents of international faculty and staff.

International Employees (H-1B, J-1 and Others)

International employees are those individuals who have University appointments and are here on non-immigrant (temporary) visas. The IC handles all immigration paperwork for those on H-1B, TN, E-3 and J-1 visas and provides a wide range of services and programs for these individuals and their families. The IC also assists University departments by filing immigrant visa petitions for foreign nationals offered permanent teaching positions and/or research faculty positions. The IC refers to outside counsel all others who are offered permanent employment at U-M.

Education Abroad

The Education Abroad Office of the International Center collaborated from 2004 through 2014 with LSA's Center for Global and Intercultural Study (CGIS) in compiling campus-wide education-abroad statistics for the IIE's Open Doors survey. Beginning in 2015, these counts are being compiled by the Office of the Provost: <http://global.umich.edu/about/administrative-tools/>

Questions about education abroad data may be directed to Amy Conger, Assistant Vice Provost and Director of Global Engagement, Office of the Provost.
