Student Enrollment

According to 2016-17 data from the Institute of International Education (IIE) Open Doors 2017 report, U-M ranked thirteenth nationally among all universities (eighth among public research institutions) in terms of “hosting” international students. The Open Doors report includes both enrolled students and those on post-completion Optional Practical Training (full-time work authorization after completion of studies). Therefore, Open Doors 2017 indicates that U-M “hosted” 8,163 international students in Fall Semester, 2016 and not the 6,754 reported as enrolled by the International Center based on Fall Semester 2016 data from the Office of the Registrar. In Fall Semester 2017, U-M enrolled 7,046 international students from 123 countries.

Note: The number of enrolled students reported by the International Center differs slightly from the number reported by the Office of the Registrar in Report #118 because the International Center report does not include students in pending permanent resident status.

Economic Impact

According to IIE’s estimated economic impact formula, U-M’s international student community (students and dependents) contributes an estimated $323.8 million to the local economy. The net contribution to the state economy by international students and their families is approximately $1.1 billion.

Dependent Support

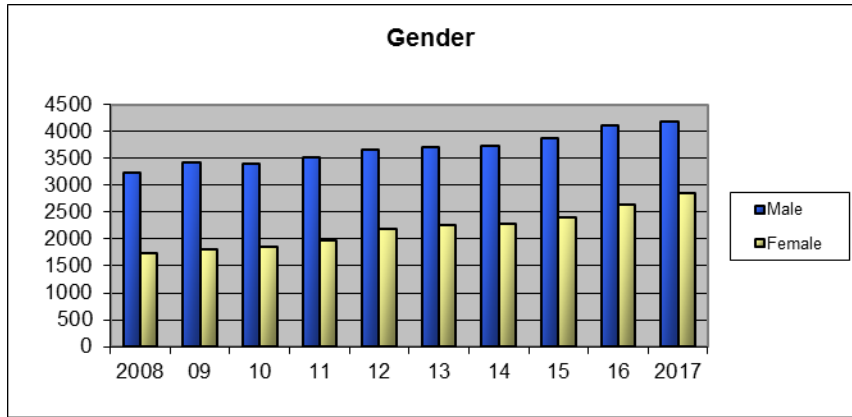

In Fall Term 2017, U-M’s F-1 and J-1 international students and J-1 international scholars and employees were accompanied by 1,021 dependents in F-2 or J-2 immigration status.

The International Center provides advising and programs for these dependents, as well as for dependents of international faculty and staff.

International Employees (H-1B, J-1 and Others)

International employees are those individuals who have University appointments and are here on non-immigrant (temporary) visas. The IC handles all immigration paperwork for those on H-1B, TN, E-3 and J-1 visas and provides a wide range of services and programs for these individuals and their families. The IC also assists University departments by filing immigrant visa petitions for foreign nationals offered permanent teaching positions and/or research faculty positions. The IC refers to outside counsel all others who are offered permanent employment at U-M.

International Employees (H-1B, J-1 and Others)

In Fall Semester, 2017 there were 1,359 international employees at U-M (650 on H-1B visas, 545 on J-1 visas and 164 on other non-immigrant visas including TN and E-3). In addition to these employees, there were 509 visiting scholars without University appointments for a total scholar/employee population of 1,868.

Note: In addition to employees in the various nonimmigrant statuses, the University of Michigan also employs a substantial number of foreign-born US citizens and legal permanent residents (i.e. green card holders). These individuals work in a wide array of academic and non-academic positions.

Education Abroad

The Education Abroad Office of the International Center collaborated from 2004 through 2014 with LSA's Center for Global and Intercultural Study (CGIS) in compiling campus-wide education-abroad statistics for the IIE's Open Doors survey. Since 2015, the Office of the Provost has compiled these statistics:
