Eligibility Criteria for I-20/DS-2019 Extension (please review this information before signing the form)

- To be eligible for extension, the student must be maintaining status, making normal progress toward completion of degree, and have academic requirements remaining.
- Extensions may only be granted to students who can demonstrate that they have compelling academic or medical reasons [8 CFR 214.2(f)(7)(iii)].
- Delays caused by academic probation or suspension are not acceptable reasons for program extension [8 CFR 214.2(f)(7)(iii)].
- Extension requests will not be granted solely because the student was delayed by engaging in employment such as Curricular Practical Training (F-1) or Academic Training (J-1).
- PhD students must comply with Rackham's "Time Limit for completing a Doctoral Degree" policy <https://rackham.umich.edu/academic-policies/section4/#4-4-1>

Estimating Final Term of Enrollment

- The final term is the last term the student is registered for classes/credit required for his/her degree. The end date of the I-20 or DS-2019 is based strictly on a student's final term of enrollment; the dates of degree conferral or graduation have no significance from an immigration program end date perspective.
- For all Rackham Ph.D. students, the completion date is the last day of the final term in which the candidate must be enrolled for eight (8) hours to defend. The Rackham grace period is not included in the extension.
- For all non-Rackham master's or doctoral students whose academic program requires a thesis, the completion date is the last day of the final term in which the student satisfies all academic requirements for the degree.

To be completed by the Academic/Faculty Advisor or Student Services staff member:

Required credit hours remaining (including DISS-CAND 995 enrollment): _____ (excluding current term enrollment)

Reason for delay (check all that apply):

- ☐ Change/add major field of study
- ☐ Change in research topics
- ☐ Unexpected research problems

☐ Student needs more time due to the following compelling academic reason(s) (please review Eligibility Criteria above for the explanation of what constitutes acceptable academic reasons for extension):

If none of these apply, please contact an International Student and Scholar Advisor at the International Center at 734-764-9310.

As the Academic/Faculty Advisor or Student Services staff member, I certify that the student is eligible to continue his/her studies and recommend that the student be allowed additional time to complete degree requirements.
